Ottawa, ON – In continuing with their annual holiday tradition, Brockway Entertainment has compiled their 23 favourite Canadian rap tracks of 2009 and packed them all onto one album. The '2010 Canadian Rap Future Superstars' compilation is non-profit initiative aimed at providing exposure for up-and-coming Canadian rap artists. The album can be downloaded and ordered for free from www.BrockwayEnt.com .

The diverse 2010 compilation features 34 Canadian artists and 24 Canadian beatmakers, spanning 11 Canadian cities including obsolete corners such as Comox, BC and Clarks Harbour, NS. Brockway Entertainment increased its community collaboration in 2009 as Mantrakid (80Bit.com) provided the album design, and DJ Sage of CFRO's 'Urban Renewal Project' provided a choice cut.

Troy Neilson: troy<at>brockwayent.com – www.brockwayent.com

The compilation began in 2003 as a handful of burnt CDs made by executive producer Troy Neilson for friends & family during the winter holidays. In 2005, Neilson made extra copies, which were sent to campus radio and other media outlets. Since then, the success of the compilation has continued to grow, while annually topping the campus radio rap charts.

"As an artist, I understand the struggle", states Neilson. "For years I wrote reviews and features via HipHopCanada.com to provide exposure for Canadian rap artists. By 2005 I was starting to run short on time, so I explored other ways to give back to the community. That's when the compilation series really began to take shape."

Artists wishing to be considered for next year's compilation are encouraged to submit their music via SonicBids (SonicBids.com/CanadianRapFutureSuperstars).

Brockway Entertainment was impressed by several independent Canadian rap releases in 2009, and is glad to have the opportunity to share with you some of their favourite tracks. Brockway Entertainment hopes you had a wonderful holiday season and you enjoy their 2009 choice selections.
